How to Do Business with the Clayton County Water Authority

March 29, 2017

Facilitated by Yolanda Jackson of the Clayton County Water Authority, this session will discuss the Authority's certification process, the program's limits for qualifications and procurement opportunities. CCWA's SLBE program is designed to foster effective broad-based competition from all segments of the vendor community, including, but not limited to, minority business enterprises, women-owned business enterprises, and small business enterprises.
