

ATLANTA PLANNING ADVISORY BOARD

INFORMATION CHANGES FREQUENTLY; PLEASE CHECK ATLANTAGA.GOV FOR UPDATES AND CURRENT ADVISORIES

ABOUT APAB

The Atlanta Planning Advisory Board is a representative Board of citizens made up of every Neighborhood Planning Unit district of Atlanta. APAB serves to advise the City on city-wide issues, goals, and objectives relative, but not limited to the Comprehensive Development Plan, land use, zoning transportation, environmental quality, license review, parks, and open spaces. APAB also advises the City on matters relating to citizen organizations and participation in the planning process.
