AUG Business Continuity 27 Planning

2020 Are you Ready for the Next Crises?

A Business Continuity Plan (BCP) holds the upmost importance for a business in these challenging times. This webinar will present an overview on how our community can respond better against the fight of COVID-19 by developing a BCP and how to protect your assets and personnel with its implementation. The ability of a business to continue its critical processes in the midst of a pandemic marks the difference between success and failure.
