

This is a City of Atlanta approved

Tactical Urbanism Project

This Project is:

Tactical Urbanism is a set of short-term, low-cost techniques that can be implemented by cities and communities in order to test out new designs and ideas on city streets that are intended to improve safety for street users and improve the built environment, especially for pedestrians and bicyclists. Send an email to TransportationPlanReview@Atlantaga.gov for additional info.

You may offer feedback to the project sponsor at

Department of
CITY PLANNING